

Talking Points for Iraq Vigil Hosts

- On this sad day we mourn the lost of the 2,000 American soldiers killed in Iraq. How many more have to die before we have an exit strategy and a timeline that starts now?
- To support our troops we are demanding that the President and Congress implement an exit strategy with a timeline that starts now.
- Support our troops and bring them home. That is the best way to keep America safe.
- This is a time to remember the individuals who have fallen in the Iraq war and to celebrate their lives.
- With 2,000 gone--the majority of them since Bush declared 'Mission Accomplished', what will it take for Congress and the President to set " a new course" by bringing our sons and daughters and fathers and mothers home?
